

The HICC Economic Development Committee presents

Hawai'i Community College Chancellor Rachel Solemsaas

Chancellor Solemsaas will share the vision for the college she has developed during her first year as Chancellor in close collaboration with the campus and the community.

The presentation will include a discussion of:

- Ensuring traditionally underserved students enter and succeed in higher education.
- Developing the local workforce in emerging and evolving industries with stackable program offerings, internships, apprenticeships, and service learning.
- Serving students island-wide with 21st century facilities.
