

The HICC Economic Development Committee presents

Best Practices of Successful Leaders

Join us for this presentation by Mike Miyahira, past president of the Hawai'i Island Chamber of Commerce. This presentation focuses on the traits that successful leaders have.

Traits that you can also develop.

- Learn what it takes to be an effective leader.
- Realize the importance of understanding and developing your emotional intelligence.
- Recognize the need to have cognitive flexibility.

Since retiring from spending two decades with Bank of Hawaii, Miyahira has devoted his time to helping family business owners. His client base spans all islands and ranges from wholesalers to retailers to food manufacturers, construction companies, trucking companies, and government.

In addition to being a former president of the Hawai'i Island Chamber, Miyahira is also past president of the Japanese Chamber of Commerce, the Big Island Business Council, the Hawaii Island United Way, the National Client Protection Organization, and Junior Achievement of Hawaii Island. He also serves as the Chair of the Trustees of the Hawaii Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection, and is a frequent presenter at the American Bar Association Center for Professional Responsibility Standing Committee on Client Protection.
